I love your real world gear review videos, except they keep making my wishlist longer! I am currently going back and forth between picking up the DJI OSMO or the DJI OSMO Mobile. Can't decide. Congrats on 1M views!

Thanks for this review in the way you use it, as I am a travel video host and have just purchased this for my first trip on Sunday. I am lucky to be married to a sound mixer, so he will be recording sound completely apart from the camera and we will sync it up later in editing. Other than the sound issue, have you enjoyed using it?

Cool, that footage looks amazing! I'm looking forward to making use of my new equipment in the field: new smartphone, new camera, new laptop. Taking off in a week to Iceland, stoked! Enjoy your time in the Philippines, looks like you've had some great adventures.

answering. Maintaining balance through yoga practice is so important to me during my travels. It's also SO much fun to meet other unique yogis in other countries like myself from all over the world! 🌎 Special thanks to my awesome instructor Barbara and @YogaBenPenglio for having me in their flow class in the sun, open air setting. I filmed a bit of the experience and my adventure on foot to get there, which was half the fun! If you ever visit the Philippines island of Panglao or Bohol be sure to schedule in a session at Yoga Barn! ❤️ answering Another sunny day at @Bonanno as I prepared to hop on this fun boat ride with them. They began to teach us how to make perfect, all natural skin care product for hot summer days definitely a festival must have! I'm always looking for ways and ready to make visual creations! Speaking of, the first Bonanno video besides the intro video I did in 2003, I think it's not the full tour yet, but rather a "situational" piece dealing with my seeing friends band and a curse that was cast on me in 2003. Ending enough? Head over to YouTube.com/AMaeTV to subscribe now so you don't miss a thing! Also, thanks to the nice ladies at Venice Beach for the sweet shade! ☀️
